The East Valley Career Expo is Tomorrow!

Additional parking and free shuttle service available.

Phoenix, Ariz. –The 2008 East Valley Career Expo will be held tomorrow (9/24/08) at the Mesa Convention Center (201 N. Center Street). More than 100 employers will be on site recruiting for entry-to professional-level positions in high tech, aerospace, finance, armed forces, retail, health care, law enforcement and government. The doors will open to job seekers at noon and close at 5 p.m.

Maricopa Workforce Connections is co-hosting the Career Expo along with Arizona Employer's Advisory Council and Jobing.com. "We connect local businesses with the qualified talent needed for success. We do this to help strengthen the economic core of our community," said Patrick Burkhart, Assistant Director, Maricopa Human Services Department, Workforce Development Division.

In anticipation of a large turnout, Maricopa Workforce Connections has secured use of Mesa Downtown Association's parking lot at 1st Avenue and MacDonald and the front parking lot of the Hohokam Stadium at 1235 North Center Street. No-charge shuttles, provided by Maricopa County Special Transportation Services, will run from both off-site parking areas. Parking areas will be staffed and monitored for the duration of the Expo.

Job seekers are encouraged to take advantage of the workshops and job search assistance offered at MWC Career Centers. Information is available online at www.maricopaworkforceconnection.com/careerseeker.

Online registration is encouraged and is available at www.azjobfair.com. Additional information may be obtained by calling Maricopa Workforce Connections at 480/497-0350.
